École St. Matthew School Update

Greetings from École St. Matthew School, It seems like we just had registration day for a new school year and the snow is already on the ground. School life continues to be very busy. We've had another well attended "Family Ties Dance" in October and we are now planning Conferencing days which lead up to the Term 1 Progress Reports going home on Dec. 1st. We are currently preparing for another season of "Battle of the Books". Students read 8 different novels and form teams who answer questions related to the stories. Competition is tough but it's lots of fun too. The Schools Win Twice raffle has concluded and École St. Matthew School always runs a very successful campaign. Thanks to all members of the BPCA who may have purchased tickets as our students would have been selling around the community. The big news this fall is the refugee family that École St. Matthew School is sponsoring arrived this September. This was a large initiative that included major planning and fun-raising. The family is settling in to Canadian life and is very happy to be here. Thank you to our entire school community and especially the organizing committee. This is one very visible way for us to reach out and transform the world.

Wishing you a joyous Advent season and warmth as we enjoy the winter months. -- M. Marc Colleaux

Santa's Workshop at Brevoort Park School

Brevoort Park School's Global Citizenship Club is currently collecting items for their Santa's Workshop.

If you have anything in like-new condition that you could donate to the sale, please bring it to the school's front office before December 14th.

Santa's Workshop allows students to be able to shop for their friends and families, and money raised will be used to support Free the Children Foundation.

Thank you for your support!
