Where Did Early Drive Get Its Name?

As written by Alexa Joy, S.A. Early's granddaughter

In 1907, S.A. Early started a hay, grain and feed store in a small frame building on Twentieth Street East, just east of the former location of the Saskatoon Star Phoenix.

In 1910, the feed store re-located to a site on Wall Street just south of 22nd Street near the present site of the YMCA. From the very beginning, the company developed a "Customer Satisfaction" policy that is still in existence today. S.A. Early pioneered the way for growth and diversification and quickly established the ability to expand with the growing needs of the major move in 1914, when the company relocated to 198 Avenue A South.

In addition to successfully guiding his own business, S.A. was a prominent and significant contributor to the Saskatoon Business Community as a whole. He served on City Council for 14 years, was a founding member of the Nutana Curling Club and a member of the Saskatoon Collegiate Board. He was active in numerous business related organizations, including the Canadian Seed Trade Association. He was a long-time member of the Saskatoon Club and Cosmopolitan Club served as President of Cosmopolitan International.

S.A. Early passed away in 1962, leaving a legacy Mission Statement that continues as the cornerstone of the company's service policy today. In recognition of the major role that S.A. played in "early" development of the City of Saskatoon, a Saskatoon street, Early Drive was so named in his honour!

don't break it

During recycling collection, 90% of glass gets broken. While the current Blue Bin program will still accept household glass material, residents are encouraged to 'take it, don't break it' and avoid potential glass breakage by taking clean glass jars and bottles to their nearest SARCAN recycling depot.
