Spring Spectacular!

Thank you to everyone who came out to enjoy a sunny day at our Spring Spectacular.

This was our first full event since 2020 and it was wonderful to see the families come out for the afternoon! Our day started with a bike parade through the park, families tried their luck with Bloons and Rink-O, jumped in the bounce house, hunted for eggs, enjoyed a BBQ lunch, and played with animals at the petting zoo. We had a successful vendor market with crocheted crafts, metal work, wood work and food items. A special thank you to the Legion for joining us with information about their museum and the vintage car owners who displayed their vehicles for us.

Proceeds from this event will help to keep our community growing by funding for special programs and to assist in replacing our garage. Thank you to the Brevoort Park students, Girl Guides, board members and family and friends who helped to make this day a success!

By the numbers:

Over 1000 people attended

35 vendors at the market

536 burgers and hotdogs eaten

Over 40 children in the All Wheels Parade

City Councillor's Report

Hello Brevoort Park, and welcome to summer 2022

It is also construction season and there are many projects underway to improve basic infrastructure in our historic neighbourhoods. For more information on construction in your area, go to www.saskatoon.ca/construction Thank you for your patience as crews work to complete these projects.

Options for the Downtown Event and Entertainment District are expected to be made public in June, and the City will be seeking your feedback. While securing the event centre location is the next step, there will be many more before Council is asked to approve any large capital projects. There are surrounding amenities to be considered including a public plaza, options for a modern trade and convention centre, parking, coordination with Bus Rapid Transit and the All Ages and Abilities cycling network, and of course a financial plan. Based on examples in other cities similar to Saskatoon, things such as Tax Incremental Financing could go a long way to support the District, alleviating pressure on property taxes. It's hard to believe this journey began in 2016, and we clearly have a long way to go. Still, it is a significant step. Where we decide to locate this future event centre will set in motion many other aspects about how our downtown will evolve and grow. I want to send a shout out to our local Advisory Committee working with the City's technical experts, as they help to guide this process. This is a once-in-a-generation project, and together we will create the District with and for our whole community.

If you would like to weigh in on any civic issues, please reach out to me: cynthia.block@saskatoon.ca Note, I send out a monthly newsletter to update residents on key decisions at City Hall. To subscribe and read previous blog posts go to:

Conveniently located at the Grosvenor Park Centre.

Rink Repair Day

Our community rink can't run without you. We rely on volunteers to help make ice, clear snow, and complete repairs.

Our equipment requires some maintenance and the rink needs new puck board, paint and love.

Join us October 1 for a rink work-bee.

Free BBQ lunch for volunteers.

Watch our social media pages and the fall newsletter for additional information.

Rink Supervision

Our rink requires an operating grant to run. Part of the requirement for obtaining the grant is supervised rink time. We rely on volunteers to supervise the rink at this time and ensure pucks and sticks stay off the ice.

Unfortunately we have had ZERO volunteers over the last two years, leaving one lone board member to shoulder this burden.

If volunteers do not sign up for short shifts to assist, we run the risk of losing our funding, and consequently our rink.

If your children or family are rink users, please sign up for a shift.

VICTIM OF THEFT?

Always report! This helps city police to see where crime is rising and can increase their presence in the neighborhood

<https://saskatoonpolice.ca/obr/>
<https://saskatoonpolice.ca/onlinereporting/>

A reminder that with the warmer weather, comes an increase in neighborhood crime.

There have been break ins, vandalism, theft, and general suspicious behaviours noted by the neighborhood citizens.

Take precautions to ensure your garages, sheds, homes and vehicles are locked. Do not leave your bikes unattended or other valuables in view.

Most crime of this nature is opportunistic in nature, a grab and go.

Stay vigilant! If you find you are the victim of a property crime, use the links on the left to report the incident to the police services.

You can message BPCA on social media or email info@brevoortpark.ca to report any safety concerns.

Brevoort Park Mascot Contest

You may have noticed our very popular friend at the Spring Spectacular. This froggy will be joining our association to help keep people smiling in our community. Unfortunately they do not have a name yet!

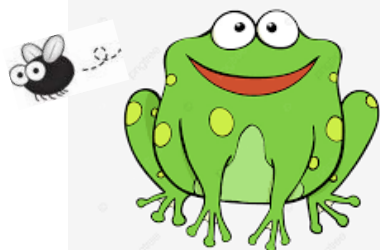

Kids of Brevoort Park, we need your help!

Submit your name suggestions to newsletter@brevoortpark.ca. Be sure to include your first name and contact information. Submitted names will be voted on over our Facebook page and the winner will receive a little something special!

Why are frogs always happy?

They eat whatever bugs them!

Indigenous History Month

June is Indigenous history month, during which we honour the resilience of our Indigenous neighbours, friends, and family throughout all of Canada, and to take the time to learn about, recognize, and appreciate their culture and history.

There are many ways you can support your Indigenous community and neighbours such as supporting locally owned businesses like She Native (Location: 1101 8 St E #1117, Saskatoon) or Bannock Express (123 Avenue B S).

Pick up a book by Indigenous author at the library, like The Break, a novel set in Winnipeg by Katherena Vermette or a book for all ages, like I Am Not A Number by Jenny Kay Dupuis and Kathy Kacer. Or stir up a traditional Indigenous recipe like Bannock or a warm and hearty Three Sisters Soup.

Recipes for Bannock, also known as “fry bread” will often spark a good-humoured debate about the proper method, the best recipe, or who is makes it the best. For now, here is a recipe that uses beloved saskatoon: berries. <https://www.cbc.ca/life/food/deep-fried-bannock-with-saskatoon-berries-a-crispy-doughy-syrup-drenched-dream-dessert-1.5416754>

3 cups all-purpose flour

2 tbsp + 1 ½ tsp baking powder

1 tbsp + 1 ½ tsp granulated sugar

¼ tsp salt

1 ½ cups water, at room temperature

Whisk together the flour, baking powder, sugar, and salt in a mixing bowl until well combined. Gradually add the water, blending it in with your hands. Be careful not to overwork the dough — it should just hold together. It will be a wet, shaggy dough but really resist overmixing it — at this point, you might think “this can’t be right,” but it is. Cover the bowl with a wet tea towel and set aside at room temperature for 30 minutes to rest.

While the dough is resting, preheat a deep-fryer or fill a deep pot with about 3 inches of oil and heat to 350°F.

With floured hands, divide the dough into 2 oz portions — about the size of a large egg — and shape into ovals.

Using your thumb, poke two holes into each portion of dough and then gently drop the dough balls into the hot oil. Fry, flipping as necessary, until golden brown all over, about 2 minutes. Using a wire-mesh scoop or slotted spoon, transfer the fried dough to a plate lined in paper towel.

To serve, cut each piece of bannock in half or quarters, drizzle with warm syrup or honey, and top with a spoonful of sweetened berries.
